

I signed up for the Federal do not call list and still get annoying phone calls from telephone solicitors. We need a stricter version of the do not call law such as the New Jersey regulation if we are ever to hope for relief from unwanted and annoying phone calls.